

Contents

Acknowledgements.....	vii
Facing the Fold.....	1
Section I: Scenario Planning: What, Why, and How.....	11
1. Plotting Your Scenarios.....	13
1 Finding a Few Plots	14
2 Fleshing Out the Scenario Plots	22
3 Ten Tips for Successful Scenarios	29
2. Scenario Planning: Art or Science?.....	35
Part I: What's wrong with regarding scenario planning as only an art?	38
Part II: How does scenario planning differ from predict-and-control, monological science?	40
Part III: Scenario Planning and A New Kind of Science	43
Part IV: Art and Ethics—the Aesthetics of Normative Scenarios	47
3. Equity and Equality: Education in the Information Age.....	55
Part I: Implementing Scenario Planning	55
Part II: A Declaration of Educational Equity	60
Part III: Putting Information Era Content into Scenario Form	72
Section II: Scenario Planning in Context.....	75
4. Future Studies and the Human Sciences:.....	77
1. The Emergent Paradigm in the Human Sciences	84
2a. Anthropology: From Explanation by Law to a Semiotic Discipline	86
2b. Implications of New Anthropology for Future Studies	92
3a. Literary Criticism and the Legacy of Existentialism	93
3b. The Import of Recent Literary Criticism for Future Studies	98
4a. The Import of Psychology for the Emergent Paradigm	99
4b. Import of Object Relations Psychology for Future Studies	103
5a. From Critical Theory to Existential Sociology	103
5b. Import of Existential Sociology for Future Studies	112
6. Toward an Emergent Paradigm	113
7. A New Look at Norms	118
8. Earth Might Be Fair... A Normative Scenario	124

5. Scenario Planning as the Fulfillment of Critical Theory.....	135
Part I. The Dilemmas of Critical Theory	137
Part II. Unraveling the dilemmas of critical theory	140
Part III. Scenario Planning and the role of Hope	154
6. What Business Strategists Have to Learn from Sartre.....	165
7. Organizational Learning, Evolution, and Scenarios.....	175
1. Stories, Heritability, and Institutional Memory	177
2. Evolutionary Theory and Scenario Planning	182
3. Lessons for Organizational Learning	188
Section III: Case Studies and Examples	193
8. Mapping Scenario Planning in the Public and Private Sectors: Lessons from regional projects.....	195
Regions of Experience	195
Lessons Applied: Scenarios for the future of California’s Central Valley	199
9. Three Scenarios for Higher Education in California.....	205
PART ONE: The Problem and a Method for its Solution	207
PART TWO: Key Factors and Driving Trends	217
PART THREE: Scenarios	226
Scenario One: Software Landing	226
Scenario Two: Education Inc.	233
Scenario Three: The New Educational Order	240
PART FOUR: Conclusions	253
Afterword	259
10. Four Scenarios for the Future of Public Education in Seattle.....	261
Part One: The Scenario Method	263
Part Two: Predetermined Elements	264
Part Three: Critical Uncertainties	267
Part Four: Scenarios	270
Part Five: Implications	296